

Appendix 11-1 Peer Editing of Outlines

Give your outline to a partner. This space is for your partner to write comments about your outline.

1. Are the supporting paragraphs organized in a logical manner? If not, what suggestions do you have?

2. Is there anything in the outline that looks unclear to you? Give details here.

3. Which area of the outline could most benefit from further development? Give at least one specific suggestion.

4. If you have any other ideas or suggestions, write them here.

Step 4: Writing the First Draft

Use the information from Steps 1–3 to write the first draft of your five-paragraph essay.

Step 5: Peer Editing

Exchange essays with someone else. Read that person's essay and offer feedback on Peer Editing Sheet 1, pages 235–236.